

World Biotech Tour

Powered by BIOGEN FOUNDATION & ASTC

Youth Ambassador Program

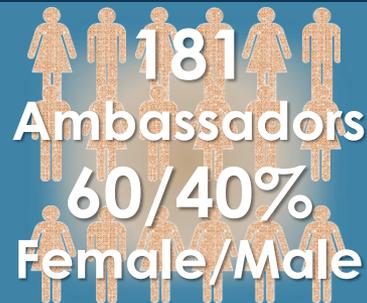

Engaging in biotechnology research

Empowering through science communication

Dr. Carlin Hsueh, Association of Science-Technology Centers (ASTC)

WBT Ambassadors: Tomas Velez (Portugal), Mao Hattori (Japan), Gilles Verbinnen (Belgium), Mild Yata Thanakarn (Thailand), Shiya Huang (Australia), Mario Spiniello (Italy), Enzo Calcagno (Canada), Khomotso Thobejane (South Africa), Lucas de Jesus Lima (Brazil), Maria Rutkowska (Poland), Ronja Holopainen (Finland), Rebeca Pena Rios (Spain)

SCWS, Tokyo, November 15, 2017

Ambassadors

Portugal | Japan | Belgium | Thailand
Italy | Australia | Canada | South
Africa Brazil | Poland | Finland | Spain

2
0
1
5
2
0
1
6
2
0
1
7

Mentors

Resources

Guidance
(staff)

Science Center Tools

Diverse
Audiences

Internships

Science forums

European Commission | UN
round table | Press
& media | Govern't
officials | Industry
leaders | Expert staff
| Scientists |
Laboratory access

Science centers provide valuable tools, resources, support & opportunities

Connecting with global peers (virtually)

SCWS 2017 Connecting the World
for a Sustainable Future

TOKYO
WED. 15 - FRI. 17 Nov. 2017

Floor Map

4-day Schedule

Having youth voices heard

“Science knows no country, because knowledge belongs to humanity, and is the torch which illuminates the world.”

Louis Pasteur

World Biotech Tour

Powered by BIOPEN FOUNDATION & ASTC

TOUR RUN 2015-2017

Sponsored by:

www.WorldBiotechTour.org

WorldBiotechTourASTC

@BiotechTour